

CONGRATULATIONS!

NAIFA-Indiana

2018 Jack Peckinpugh Associate of the Year

George "Andy" Beutter, LUTCF, FSS
Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance
NAIFA-North Central Indiana

George "Andy" Beutter has been a lifelong northern Indiana resident. He joined Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance on April 4, 1988 as a multi-line agent. He joined NAIFA the following June.

Andy has received much acclaim in his 31 years of service at Farm Bureau including Farm Bureau Agent Mentor in 2011, Farm Bureau Premier Agent 7 times, Top 10 Club Member, Farm Bureau Farm Agent, New Agent Mentor, Kramer Award (Agent of the Year) winner in 2004, a graduate of Purdue Estate Planning school and a graduate of American Management Association.

Andy is recognized as a key leader and participant in NAIFA at several levels. Some major accomplishments for the North Central Indiana local include LUTC and CE moderator, Committee Chair for Awards Banquet, a Board Member for 21 years and President of the Local in 2003-2004 and again in 2014-2015.

Perhaps even more impressive is Andy's leadership at the State level. He has been a NAIFA-Indiana Board Member for 14 years and was State President in 2011-2012. Andy is the current State Treasurer and a key participant on the Government Relations Board & Committee. He also sits on the State Executive Committee. Representing his local and the state, Andy has attended 12 consecutive National conventions and 20 consecutive Day-On-The-Hill sessions. He contributes to IFAPAC at the Diplomat level.

Andy has also well represented Indiana at the National level by serving on the Membership Committee for 1 year and by being an APIC contact for a senator.

Andy's impressive list of civic organizations, community activities, charitable organizations and various industry awards illustrate his strong work ethic and his dedication to service. He is well respected and highly regarded by his peers.

Andy's educational path has included Indiana University, American Management Assn., the American College and Penn High School. He earned his LUTCF in September of 1992 and his FSS in March of 2013. He earned his Series 6 and 63 licenses in April of 1999.

Andy and his wife Janice have 3 married children, 2 grandsons, 2 grand dogs, and 4 grand cats. His current avocation is getting his IU Hoosiers another national championship. His previous one was helping the Cubs to the World series.
