Daniel H. W. Stallings, of Stallings Wealth Management, has a long tradition of helping clients build and preserve wealth. His focus is on estate and retirement planning for individuals and small business owners. Daniel's previous career in higher education has developed his interest in helping those that he works with to acquire knowledge to make important financial decisions. His business moto is "Educated Strategies for Your Future."

Daniel grew up in California and received an AA from Oxford College and his BA from Emory College of Emory University (GA), his Master of Education from Azusa Pacific University (CA) and his Management Development Certificate from the Marshall School of Business at the University of Southern California. Professionally, he served for over 20 years in leadership roles in higher education including as the Associate Dean for Student Affairs in the College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics at California State University, Fullerton and as the Director of Leadership and Service Learning at Ball State University. He was the inaugural recipient of the Mid-level Student Affairs Professional Award at the Regional and National levels by NASPA in 2003 and 2004.

Daniel holds life, health and LTC licenses for Indiana and California. He is also securities registered with series 7 and 66 licenses. Daniel is Past President of the local NAIFA-Indiana East Central Indiana Chapter where he was Associate of the Year and Board Member of the Year. He currently serves as Past President of NAIFA Indiana. He subscribes to a philosophy he learned in higher education: "People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care." He has found this to be true in all aspects of his personal and professional career.

Daniel is active in his community as a member of the Muncie Rotary Club where he serves as the Rotary Youth Exchange Officer. He also currently serves on the Heart of Indiana United Way board as Secretary as well as on the finance committee. He also serves on the Community Foundation of Muncie/Delaware County Board and on the Investment Committee. He has been married to Dr. Lynne Stallings for over 33 years. Together, they were both recognized with the Mayor James P Carey Community Service Award in recognition of Distinction in Community Leadership by the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dream Team. They enjoy traveling, being involved in the community and supporting their two daughters. And cheering on the USC Trojans! They reside in Muncie, IN.
